My name is Caroline. I am 20 years old. I study Medieval Literature at New York University. My favourite subject is Spanish Literature. English is a very difficult subject. My teachers are very friendly . It's my third year at University now. I love it!

I live in a big apartment, it's got a very nice terrace. It's near the University campus. I share the apartment with two other students, their names are Laura and Johny. They're American and they study Literature too. We help each other with our homework. At the weekend, we play tennis together.

I have a sister. She started high school last year. She's 15 and she lives with my parents. They live in London. Sometimes they come to visit me and my mom always brings me sweets and a special present. I really miss them!
